

Developing Trauma Outcome Research: A Workshop

Tuesday, 20 April 2010, 10:00 – 1:00 pm
Dockside Room, National Waterfront Museum, Swansea

---

---

Programme

- 09:45 – 10:00      Registration and coffee
-
- 10:00 – 10:05      Chair: Professor Helen Snooks
Welcome and Introduction
- 10:05 – 10:15      Professor Ronan Lyons
Overview of trauma research: where are the gaps?
- 10:15 – 10:30      Mr Ian Pallister
Results of an orthopaedic research priority setting exercise
- 10:30 – 10:45      Mr Tom Potokar
Burns research – current status and opportunities
-
- 10:45 – 11:00      Refreshments
-
- 11:00 – 11:30      Professor Helen Snooks
Existing local strengths to support trauma outcomes research in Wales
- 11:30 – 12:00      Professor Ronan Lyons
Trauma outcomes follow up:
  - Australian model
  - Opportunities in Wales
  - Benefits of building a system for routine follow up of outcomes
    - Evaluation of interventions – RCTs
    - Quality improvement
    - Capacity building
- 12:00 – 1:00      Facilitated discussion
  - Where to start?
  - Inclusion criteria
  - Outcomes to include
  - Ethics/Governance
  - Funding
  - Collaborators
  - Other issues?
-
- 1:00                      Close and Lunch
-
-