

Programme

East Midlands Ambulance Service
NHS Trust

999 EMS
RESEARCH FORUM

The University
Of Sheffield.

What's New in Emergency Pre-hospital Care Research?

Gathering evidence to: Improve Quality • Evaluate New Models of Care

A National One Day Conference

Wednesday, 26th November 2008 • East Midlands Conference Centre • Nottingham

09.30	Registration and coffee
10.00	Introduction and welcome	Paul Phillips Chief Executive, East Midlands Ambulance Service
10.05	Chair's Opening	Malcolm Woollard Professor in Pre-hospital Care, University of Coventry
10.10	Plenary session 1 NEECaP Trial: National evaluation of Emergency Care Practitioners	Suzanne Mason Reader in Emergency Medicine, University of Sheffield
10.40	Plenary session 2 Decision support in pre-hospital care	Jeremy Dale Professor of Primary Care, Warwick Medical School
11.10	Refreshment Break
11.30	Workshops Workshop 1: Suzanne Mason and team - Workforce and organisational challenges of the ECP role: Research findings and remaining questions Workshop 2: Tim Coats - Building pre-hospital care research for the future Workshop 3: Niro Siriwardena &amp; Debbie Shaw - Statistical process control Workshop 4: Helen Snooks - Winning funding to carry out pre-hospital care research: Getting on the UKCRC portfolio
12.30	Lunch
13.15	Poster viewing - authors will be available to discuss their work
13.45	Chair's Opening of the 999 EMS Research Forum oral session	Tim Coats Professor in Emergency Medicine, University of Leicester
13.50	Angela Evans What are the highest priorities for research in pre-hospital care? Results of a review and consultation exercise
14.10	David Fitzpatrick Improving post-hypoglycaemic patient safety in the pre-hospital environment: A systematic review
14.30	Alison Porter When would you call 999? Perceptions of emergency ambulances' role in unscheduled health care
14.50	Mark Dixon The effectiveness of supraglottic airway devices in pre-hospital BLS airway management
15.10	Refreshment break
15.30	Plenary session 3 Improving quality in pre-hospital care	Matthew Cooke Professor of Emergency Medicine at Warwick Medical School
16.15	*Awards Presentation
16.30	Chair's summary and close

*An exhibition of posters selected through the 999 EMS Research Forum open submission, peer reviewed process, will be on display in the corridor opposite the workshop rooms during the day. Oral and poster presentations selected through the peer review process will be judged and awards made for: Highest quality research (Zoll sponsored international exchange); Best poster (EMJ sponsored £75 book token); Research most likely to affect practice (JRCALC sponsored £75 book token).

The conference is sponsored by the NIHR SDO and the Department of Health

Organised by 999 EMS Research Forum in collaboration with:
University of Sheffield and the National Ambulance Research Steering Group